THE UNION.

BY DAVID BATES.

"It must and shall be preserved."—JACKSON.

What! rend this glorious federal arch,
O'er which our proud flag is unfurled,
And crush the hopes, and chain the march
Of freedom to a fettered world?

The wretch who seeks to rend in twain
This union that our fathers gave,
Shall, living, bear the curse of Cain,
And, dying, fill a traitor's grave.

Where is the man who drew his breath
In this fair temple god has made,
Who dares to die the living death
Oftreason, by his act betrayed.

Stand forth, and let the world behold
Another Arnold basely born,
With lust for power and thirst for gold,
And bear a nation's curse and scorn.

The Union's safe. Ye need not fear
The words from babbling tongues distilled
Will check her in her proud career,
Till her grand mission is fulfilled.

A LAWYER'S ADVENTURE.

We presume our Illinois readers will readily expand the town of C——— mentioned in the following sketch into Carlyle:

About three or four years ago, more or less, I was practising law in Illinois in a pretty large circuit. I was called on one day in my office, in the town of C———, by a very pretty woman, who, not without tears, told me her husband had been arrested for horse-stealing. She wished to retain me on the defense. I asked her why she did not go to Judge B., an ex-Senator of the United States, whose office was in the same town. I told her that I was a young man at the bar, &c. She mournfully said that he had asked a retaining fee above her means, and besides did not want to touch the case, for her husband was suspected of belonging to an extensive band of horse thieves and counterfeiters, whose head quarters were on Moore's prairie.

I asked her to tell the whole truth of the matter, and if it was true that her husband did belong to such a band?

"Ah, sir," said she, "a better man at heart than my George never lived; but he liked cards and drink, and I am afraid they made him do what he never would have done if he had not drank. I fear that it can be proved that he had the horse; he didn't steal it; another did and passed it to him.

I didn't like the case. I knew that there was a great dislike to the gang located where she named, and feared to risk the case before a jury. She seemed to observe my intention to refuse the case, and burst into tears.

I never could see a woman weep without feeling like a weak fool myself. If it hadn't been for eyes brightened by 'pearly tears,' (blast the poet that made them come into fashion,) I'd never been caught in the lasso of matrimony. And my would-be client was pretty. The handkerchief that hid her ripe lips, and her snowy bosom rose and fell like a white gull in a gale of wind at sea. I took the case and she gave me the particulars.

The gang, of which he was not a member, had persuaded him to take the horse. He knew the horse was stolen, and like a fool acknowledged it when he was arrested. Worse still, he had trimmed the horse's tail and main to alter his appearance, and the opposition party could prove it.

The trial came on. I worked hard to get a jury of ignorant men, who had more heart than brain; who, if they could not fathom the depths of argument, or follow the labyrinthine mazes of the law, could feel for a fellow in a bad fix, weeping and pretty wife nearly broken hearted, and quite distracted. Knowing the use of "effect," I told her to dress in deep mourning, and bring her little cherub of a boy only three years old, into court, and sit as near her husband as the officer would let her. I tried that game once in a murder case, and a weeping wife and sister made a jury render a verdict against law, evidence and the judge's charge, and saved a fellow that ought to have been hung as high as Haman.

The prosecution opened very bitterly inveighed against thieves and counterfeiters, and who had robbed every farmer in the region of their finest horses. It introduced witnesses, and proved all, more than I feared it would.

The time came for me to rise for the defense. Witnesses I had none. But I determined to make an effort, only hoping so to interest the judge and jury as to secure a recommendation to the gubernatorial clemency and slight sentence. So I painted this picture: A young man entered into life, wedded to an angel; beautiful in person, possessing every gentle and noble attribute. Temptation was before and all around him. He kept a tavern. Guests there were many; it was not for him to inquire into their business: they were well dressed, made large bills and paid promptly. At an unguarded hour, when he was insane with the liquor they urged upon him, he had deviated from the path of rectitude. The demon of alchohol had reigned in his brain; and it was his first offence. Mercy pleaded for another chance to save him from ruin. Justice did not require that his young wife should go down sorrowing to the grave, and that the shadow of disgrace and the taunt of a felon father should cross the path of that sweet child. Oh, how earnestly did I plead for them. The woman wept; the husband did the same; and the jury looked melting. If I could have had the closing speech, he would have been cleared; but the prosecutor had the close, and threw ice on the fire I had kindled. But they did not quite put it out.

The judge charged according to law and evidence, but evidently leaned on the side of mercy. The jury found a verdict of guilty, but unanimously recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. My client was sentenced to the shortest imprisonment the court was empowered to give, and both jury and court signed a petition to the governor for an unconditional pardon, which has since been granted, but not before the following incident occurred:

Some three months after this I received an account for collection from a wholesale house in New York. The parties to collect from were hard ones, but they had property, and before they had an idea of the trap laid, I had the property, which they were about to assign before they broke under attachment. Finding that I was neck ahead and bound to win, they 'caved in' and 'forked over' three thousand seven hundred and ninety four dollars and eight cents (per memorandum book) in good money. They lived in Shawneetown, about 35 or 40 miles southwest of Moore's prairie. I received the funds just after bank opening, but other business detained me till after dinner. I then started for C———, intending to go as far as the village of Mount Vernon that night.

I had gone along ten or twelve miles, when I noticed a splendid team of double horses attached to a light wagon in which were seated four men, evidently of a high strung order.—They swept past as if to show how easy they could do it. They shortened in, and allowed me to come up to them, and hailing me asked me to 'wet,' or in other words, diminish the contents of a jug of old rye they had in their wagon: but I excused myself with the plea that I had plenty on board. They asked me how far I was going. I told them as far as Mount Vernon, if my horse don't tire. They mentioned a pleasant tavern ten or twelve miles ahead as a nice stopping place, and then drove on.

I did not like the looks of those fellows nor their actions. I had a brace of revolvers and a nice knife; my money was not in my valise or my sulky, but in my belt around my body. I drove slow, in hopes that they would drive on, and I should see them no more. It was nearly dark when I saw a tavern sign ahead. At the same time I saw their wagon stood at the door. I would have pressed on, but my horse needed rest. I hauled up, and a woman came to the door. She turned as pale as death when she saw me—she did not speak—but with a meaning in look she put her finger to her lips and beckoned me in; she was the wife of my late client.

When I entered the party recognized me, and hailed me as an old traveling friend, and asked me to drink. I respectfully declined to do so.

"By God, you shall drink or fight!" said the noisiest of the party.

"Just as you please; drink I shall not!" said I purposely showing the butt of a Colt which kicks six times, in rapid succession.

The party interposed, and very easily quelled the assailent. One offered me a segar, which I reluctantly refused, but a glance from the woman induced me to accept. She advanced and proffered me a light, and in doing so slipped a note into my hand, which she must have written a moment before. Never shall I forget the words. They were:

"Beware! they are members of the gang.—They mean to rob and murder you! leave soon; I will detain them!"

I did not feel comfortable then but tried to feel so.

"Have you any room to put up my horse?" I asked, turning toward the woman.

"What, are you not going on to night?" asked one of the men; "we are."

"No," I replied, "I shall stay all night."

"We'll all stay, then, I guess, and make a night of it," said another of the cut throats.

"You'll have to put up your own horse—here's a lantern for you," said the woman.

"I am used to that," I said. "Gentlemen excuse me a minute, I'll join you in a drink when I come in."

"Good on your head! More whiskey, old gal," shouted they.

I went out, glanced at their wagon it was old fashioned, and "linch pins" secured the wheels. To take out my knife and pull one from the fore and hind wheels was the work of an instant, and then I threw them as far off in the darkness as I could. To untie my horse and dash off was but the work of a moment. The road lay down a steep hill, but my lantern lighted me somewhat.

I had hardly got under full headway, when I heard a yell from those I had so unceremoniously left. I put whip to my horse. The next moment with a shout they started. I threw my lantern away, and left my horse to pick his way. A moment later I heard a crash—a horrible shriek. The wheels were off. Then came the rush of the horses tearing along furiously with the wreck of the wagon. Finally, they seemed to fetch up in the wood. One or two shrieks I heard as I swept on, leaving them far behind. For some time I hurried my horse—you'd better believe I "rid!" It was after midnight when I got to Mount Vernon.

The next day I heard that a Moore's Prairie team had run away, and two men out of four had been so badly hurt that their lives were despaired of; I didn't cry. My clients got their money, and I didn't travel that road any more.

A WIFE EATING HER HUSBAND'S BODY.—A letter from Walla Walla, Washington Territory, to the Portland, Oregon, News, and dated November 3rd, says that an express had just arrived in the valley from the command of Capt. Dent, who was ordered out upon the emigrant road, in the vicinity of Fort Boise, to investigate the report of the massacre of the emigrants. Captain Dent found some ten or twelve emigrants still alive, and subsisting upon the dead bodies of their associates. The details are most horrible. The messenger reports some ten or twelve dead bodies had been found, and that ten were still alive, secreted in parties of three or four for the distance of twelve miles in the vicinity of the attack. Some had died from actual starvation. Mr. Myers, his brother and wife, Mrs. Myers, with five children, and Miss Trumbull, were among the living. This party was subsisting upon the dead body of Mr. Myers, the husband and father of the family.

BEING WAITED UPON.—The New York Traveller tells the following story as illustrative of the "honesty of country girls:"

"An amusing incident took place in one of the large dry-goods stores in our city a short time since. A good looking honest faced country girl came to town with her feller to do a little trifle of shopping. The magnitude of the store the piles on piles of goods, the dazzling array of articles, and the flitting array of cashboys, quite overpowered our good friend, who scarcely knew what to do. Her 'feller' obstinately refused to go in, but loitered at the door.

"The clerks being all busy just then, the young lady was obliged to remain standing for a few moments. At length a gaily dressed little fellow came bowing and scraping up to the blushing customer, with—

"'Any body waiting on you, madam?'

"The color deepened in her cheeks, as she pointed to her beau, and faultered out:

"'Yes, sir; he is.'"

LIFE IN THE GOLD REGIONS.—Among the deep defiles of the Rocky Mountains, lately, a small company of men stood around the new made grave of a dead companion. With heads uncovered they listened attentively to the words of the preacher as he offered up a prayer. While in the midst of it, one of the company discovered "the color" in the earth at his feet thrown up to make room for the remains of the deceased. In a loud whisper he communicated the rather exciting intelligence to his companion.—All heard it, even the clergyman, who, suspending his prayer, opened his eyes to see the auditory scatter in every direction to stake off gold claims. Calling in a loud voice to stake him off a "claim," he reclosed his eyes, hastily concluded his prayer, and started off on a run to join his fellows in securing a claim.

CURABILITY OF CONSUMPTION.—The post mortem examination of the remains of the Rev. Dr. Armstrong, missionary to the sandwich Islands, who died recently of internal homorrhage, produced by a fall from his horse, shows the curious fact that a portion of his lungs had been destroyed by consumption, and the parts had healed over. Some twenty years ago he had symptoms of consumption and cured himself by bathing and horseback riding, sclnce which he had experienced no appearance of the disease. This seems to show the curability of consumption.

A HINT—"Sonny do you love me any!"

"O! don't I though!"

"What for?"

"Because you always bring me candy when you come to see sissy Jane. Give me some more."

"And what does she love me for?"

"O, cause you take her to concerts, and give her so many nice things. She says so long as you are fool enough to bring her shawls and bonnets, she won't sack you no how—now give me some more candy."

REMARKABLE RIDING.—A very remarkable horse race came off on the 1st of November, at the Santa Clara (Cal.) race course, J. R. Pico, of San Jose, made a wager of $2,500 that he would, on the day above mentioned, ride one hundred and fifty miles in the unprecedented time of six hours and thirty minutes, or at the railroad speed of more than twenty-three miles an hour, not allowing the time lost in mounting and dismounting the different horses which he proposed to use. He won the bet with fourteen minutes and ten seconds to spare.

PRIZE FIGHTING IN VERMONT.—A bill is before the Legislature in Vermont to prevent prize fighting, making every person who shall engage in any such fight punishable by imprisonment not more than ten years, or by fine not more than $5,000; and every aid, second or surgeon, by imprisonment not more than five years, or by fine not to exceed $1,000, and every resident of the State who goes out of it to engage in such fight, subject to the same punishment as an 'aid, second or surgeon' to any such fight within the State.

☞ A good story is told of an Irish hostler who was sent to the stable to bring forth a traveller's horse. Not knowing which of the two strange horses in the stalls belonged to the traveller, and wishing to avoid the appearance of ignorance in his business, he saddled both animals and brought them to the door. The traveller pointed out his own horse saying, "that's my nag." "Certainly, yer honor, I knew that, but I didn't know which one of them was the other gintleman's.

☞ The Mobile Mercury of Thursday says: We saw a gentleman yesterday direct from Texas. He came from the region of country where the hanging process was rife some while back. He says the distant public is not informed of the extent of the hanging. He is a member of a vigilance committee, which has been in correspondence with the committees of other counties, and estimates that no less than two hundred and fifty persons have suffered death at a rope's end.

"SPHEEZE."—A rapturous poet thus describes the manner of obtaining a kiss. As the Hottentot gentleman says, at the Aquarial Gardens, "It is goot:" First, grasp with haste around the waist, and hug her tight to thee; and then she'll say: "Do go away—do; won't you let me be?" Then, O what bliss! but never miss so good a chance as that; then make a dash, as quick as flash, and—E-e-yow! Harriet, hold my hat!

☞ Massachusetts, unfortunately for the present arguments against secession, passed the following resolutions by its legislature, which resolutions are said to stand on its statute books still unrepealed:

Resolved, That the anexation of Texas is, ipso facto, a dissolution of the Union.

Resolved, That Texas being annexed, Massachusetts is out of the Union.

ARMS GOING SOUTH.—The Fredericksburg (Va.) Herald states that on Monday, the 19th inst., 6,000 stand of arms, boxed up, passed South in a freight train, over that road, and, on the following day, 7,000 more passed in the same direction. Their exact direction was not known to the Herald.

☞ Have naught to do with a proud woman, for she will despise you—nor with an extravagant one, for she will ruin you.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1860.

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, five or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.,

Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

STATE TREASURER.—Among the names mentioned in connection with this office,—we might say almost the only one—is that of Hon. Henry D. Moore, of Philadelphia, and since we have understood that Wm. M. Lloyd, Esq., our clever banker in this place, is not a candidate for that position, we know of no one whom we would rather see successful than the gentleman first named. He is a gentleman of high standing for integrity, having filled numerous offices of trust, is a ripe scholar, and has had much experience which would qualify him for the office named. He has served his party as faithfully as any man in it and certainly deserves well at the hands of his party friends. His nomination by a unanimous vote, in the People's Party caucus, is generally conceded.

☞ We might say a great deal on the state of the Union, at the present time, but we are of the opinion that too much has already been said. That South Carolina will secede is now a fixed fact. At the Convention which meets in Charleston, on Wednesday next, she will formally declare herself out of the Union, but whether she will get out thus easily, remains to be seen.—The time for talk, at Washington, has passed and the time for action arrived, and we must have good news or bad news ere long. We believe that the Union can not and will not be dissolved.

HOPE HE'LL WIN.—We notice that our esteemed cotemporary, Col. Swank, of the Cambria Tribune, is a candidate for Post Master at Johnstown. We know Jim. He is one of the most sociable and agreeable members of the "art preservative," or any other art or trade, that we know, and he has the ability to discharge the duties of P. M. to the satisfaction of the most captious, and more than that, he merits the appointment on the ground of service to his party. We shall be glad to note that Jim wins the race.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—The January number of this elegant Ladies Magazine is before us.—Its fashion plates and steel engravings are equal to the best, and the reading matter all readable. Every lady who wants to keep up with the times and fashions should take a magazine, and the fact that we furnish Peterson's Magazine to the wives, daughters and sweethearts of our advance paying subscribers at the low rate of $1.25 a year, should induce all to try and get it for the coming year. Come along, we're ready to order it.

☞ On Saturday week, a complimentary dinner was given to A. K. McClure, Esq., the efficient chairman of the State Committee of the People's party, in Philadelphia. The affair came off at the Continental Hotel. About one hundred persons participated, including the Governor elect, Hon. A. G. Curtin. After the eatables were disposed of several toasts were given, which were answered by speeches full of conservativeism.

☞ We notice that Bennett's Dollar Monthly has been changed to the American Dollar Monthly, Emerson Bennett retiring from the work.—The present publisher offers the magazine for one year and a premium worth from 50 cents to $100 to every person who sends him $1. Our subscribers can do as they choose about going into this premium business. Address John L. Hamelin, 144 South 3rd St., Philadelphia.

☞ Arthur's Home Magazine, for January, 1861, is to hand and is filled with that kind of reading which American firesides demand. It is, as the editors say, an American Magazine, and as such should be taken by all who have $2 to invest in literary reading matter. It is well worth the price. Address, T. S. Arthur & Co., Philadelphia.

NOVEL MODE OF RECORDING A MARRIAGE.—Justice Waite, of St. Louis, lately came into possession of a dollar bill, upon the back of which the following had been written with a pen:

"This dollar bill, together with a miserably executed half dollar, was all that Mr. George H. Cox, of Oshkosh, Wis., gave me for marrying him to Miss Celia Rice, on the 4th of October, 1859. The beautiful engraved certificate I gave them was worth fifty cents, and the recording of the marriage (according to law) cost twenty-five cents, leaving me but a quarter of a dollar with which to advertise it, and as the papers charge fifty cents for such advertisements, which would bring me in debt, I chose this more economical method of advertising said marriage, and letting the world know that Mr. George H. Cox and Miss Celia Rice are married according to law.

Pastor M. E. Church."

☞ Californians are complaining strongly of the effect that coolie labor is having in that State. They live on what would starve a white man, whose labor is being driven out of the market. When work is slack, the coolies are thrown as paupers on the State for support.

Letter from Noble Old Houston.

Latest advices from Texas state that because old Sam Houston, "the noblest Roman of them all," steadily refused to call the state legislature together, a Mr. Stewart, member of the Legislature of Texas from Gonzales, has issued a circular in accordance with resolutions of meetings held in that place, inviting the members of the Legislature to be in Austin on the third Monday in December, for the purpose of holding an extra session, and to take the necessary steps for calling a State Convention. Gov. Houston promises to resign if the people of the State demand the convoking of the Legislature. The hoisting of the Lone Star flags in the towns of Texas continues. The following is a passage from Governor Houston's letter, dated November 25, in reply to parties in the State who asked his opinion:

"I need not assure you that whenever the time shall come when we must choose between a loss of our constitutional rights and revolution, I shall choose the latter; and if I, who have led the people of Texas in stormy times of danger, hesitate to plunge into revolution now, it is not because I am ready to submit to Black Republican rule, but because I regard the Constitution of my country and am determined to stand by it. Mr. Lincoln has been constitutionally elected, and much as I deprecate his success, no alternative is left me but to yield to the constitution. The moment that instrument is violated by him I will be foremost in demanding redress and the last to abandon my ground.

"When I contemplate the horrors of civil war, such as dissolution of the Union will ultimately force upon us, I cannot believe that the people will rashly take a step fraught with these consequences. They will consider well the blessings of the government we have, and it will only be when the grievances we suffer are of a nature that as freemen we can no longer bear them, that they will raise the standard of revolution. Then, the civilized world, our own consciousness and posterity will justify us. If that time should come, then will be the day and the hour. If it has not—if our rights are yet secure—we cannot be justified. Has the time come? If it has, the people who have to bear the burdens of revolution must themselves effect the work.

"I trust the gloom which now hangs over the land will soon be dispelled. Now is the time for the patriot to come forth, and consider what is to be gained by a change. We are called up on to desert the gallant thousands who for years have been fighting our battles against fanaticism in the North. Heretofore they have aided us to conquer, and we have been willing to abide with them. Now, after a struggle more glorious than any they yet have made, they have been driven back. They still offer us the guarantees of the constitution, and are ready to battle with us in its defence. Let true men, all over Texas and the South, see to it that we leave them not without a cause. I cannot believe that we can find at present more safety out of the Union than in it. Yet I believe it due the people that they should know where they stand. Mr. Lincoln has been elected on a sectional issue.—If he expects to maintain sectional issue during his administration, it is well we should know it. If he intends to administer the government with equality and fairness, we should know that.—Let us wait and see.

"Here I take my stand! So long as the Constitution is maintained by 'Federal Authority,' and Texas is not made the victim of 'Federal wrong,' I am for the Union as it is. I am now an aged man. My locks have become white in toiling, as I believe, for the liberties of mankind. Were I young, that I might look forward to the future, feeling that whatever danger might come, my strong arm would be at hand to defend my family, I should feel less anxiety than I do at present. The years that I will have to endure the misfortunes of civil war are but few. If I could feel that with the close of my career would end the miseries of my race, I could share its misfortunes with patience; but to feel that the perils of revolution must continue, that war, with its attendant horrors of bloodshed, rapine and devastation must still be visited upon it, would embitter my last moments; and after living to witness the demolition of the best Government that ever existed, I would sink to the grave without a hope that freedom would be regenerated, or our posterity ever enjoy again the blessings with which we have parted. Let us pause and ponder well before we take any action outside of the Constitution.

Very truly yours, SAM HOUSTON."

STAR PREACHERS.—The Christian Advocate, an organ of Methodism, says: "Ever and anon a circuit, or more commonly an ambitious station, that has been afraid to trust itself to the bishop and cabinet, in regular fashion, and has been picking, and choosing, and bargaining before every Conference, gets thoroughly run down with star preachers. The members who have seen an end of all perfection in that line, say, "we are tired of star preachers. We want a pastor. Will the Bishop send us a pastor?" As a general thing "star" and "sensation" preachers are humbugs, and better calculated to shine on the boards of a theatre than in the pulpit.

SUFFERING IN THE SOUTH.—The distress consequent upon the troubled State of our nation is not confined to any one section of the union as will appear from the following paragraph from the Atlanta (Ga.) Locomotive of last week: Never before has there been as many laborers thrown out of employment in Atlanta as at this present time. Most of the carpenters are idle, (the improvements being all discontinued,) and many of them have large families depending upon them for bread, and they can get no work. There is indeed a great deal of suffering among the laboring classes in our midst, and we think something should be done for them.

RESIGNED.—Mr. M'Lane our Minister to Mexico, has resigned that post, and ex-Governor Weller, of California, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. M'Lane's last despatches show that the situation of Mexican affairs has been worse than ever, and that he had no hope by remaining there as Minister, of rendering any service to his government. He had no hope of negotiating any treaty that would be satisfactory to the United States government.

ANOTHER PRIZE FIGHT.—On Tuesday a prize fight for one thousand dollars took place near North Berwick, Me., between Michael Fritz, of Providence, R. I., and Wm. O'Neil of Worcester, Mass. Sixty-three rounds were fought, occupying four hours and twenty minutes, when Fritz was declared victor, owing to a foul blow Nearly one hundred and fifty persons were present from Boston by special trains. Neither party had ever fought in the ring before.

POPULAR LECTURE.—The admirers of that gifted poetess, Miss Louise E. Vickroy, will be glad to learn that she lectures in Hollidaysburg this (Thursday) evening, on the "Poetry and Poets of America." Could we conveniently get there and back, we would not miss the treat.

DEAD.—Mr. John Cramer, whom we noticed last week as having been injured by a collision in the yard, in this place, died on Sunday evening last, from inflamation of the brain, he leaves a wife and two children to mourn their loss.

LOCAL ITEMS.

☞ It is said that "the proof of the pudding is in the chewing of the bag," therefore we are prepared to affirm that the meat of the large hog we noticed last week was as good as the carcass was large—thanks to Mr. Miller for several yards of most excellent sausage. As some of our readers are probably anxious to know the yield of this mammoth porker, and what it was worth, at the present state of the markets, we append a statement.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 229 | lbs lard, at | 15 | cts per lb, | $34,35 |
| 122½ | " sausage, | 12½ | " " " | 14,70 |
| 43 | " head, | 4 | " " " | 1,72 |
| 40 | " ham, | 14 | " " " | 5,60 |
| 30 | " ribs, | 5 | " " " | 1,50 |
| Total, | | | | $57,87 |

Besides the above there were several pounds of feet, liver and heart, skins and cracklings, which, if added to the above, would make the hog worth $60. It would require about four ordinary hogs to net that amount. Does it, or does it not, pay to raise large hogs?

☞ Rev. Haskins, of Nebraska City, Nebraska Territory, preached in the Methodist E. Church in this place, on Sunday morning last.—After the sermon he detailed, very briefly, the sufferings of the people in that country for want of the necessaries of life and clothing. The crops in that country the past season were a total failure, as an evidence of which he stated that he planted ten acres of corn and gathered just three ears of corn therefrom, and twelve bushels of potatoes put in the ground last spring yielded him one peck this fall, ranging in size from a walnut to a pea. He had lately received a letter from home, stating that sixty children had attended Sunday School in his town, through snow eight inches deep, without shoes or stockings. A collection was taken up to help his suffering neighbors and a bundle containing numerous articles of clothing was given him on Monday.

THE SLEIGHING.—The fall of snow we had on Friday night and Saturday last, brought out the cutters, fast nags and fast young men, but the pleasure was none of the smoothest. The snow was too light and the runners of cutters and other crafts found their way through to the frozen ground, and made almost as much noise as a stage coach. The b'hoys had quite a time of it, on Saturday night, coasting down the hill on Julia street. No accident occurred to any one except our senior d——l, (now a graduate) who came nigh having his "outsides stove in" by being struck in the small of the back with a plank, loaded with half-a-dozen boys, while he was endeavoring to recover his equilibrium after having been "spilled" from a preceeding craft.

GOOD WILL HOP.—The Second Grand Annual Ball of the Good Will Fire Engine and Hose Company, of this place, given for the benefit of the Company, comes off at Logan Hall, on Friday evening of next week, 21st inst., and promises to be one of the most recherche affairs of this kind ever gotten up in this neighborhood. The Hall is admirably suited for such entertainments, and the list of managers of the Ball is a sufficient guarantee that it will be well conducted, and that those who attend will be treated in the best manner. We hope the Good Will boys may realize handsomely therefrom.

THE ALTOONA P. O.—There are now quite a number of aspirants for the position held by our worthy townsman, Mr. Shoemaker. Although none of them would be guilty of charging him with doing anything wrong, nevertheless they would like amazingly well to get into his situation, and, since a change in the general government will take place on the 4th of March next, it is altogether likely that some one of them will get it, though who the lucky individual will be we would not pretend to insinuate.—Any one of those who are applicants would make a good officer, consequently we particularly favor none of them.

☞ Christmas is coming—everybody knows that, but everybody don't know that his or her turkey for that occasion is coming. We believe we have not yet passed the holidays, since our advent in Altoona, without this necessary requisite to the proper observance thereof, and if we go turkey less this time, we must attribute it to the suspensions now prevalent, whereby our turkey was suspended before we received it. But we are not without hope.

☞ The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the new firm of Dill & Ickes, recently started in East Altoona. They have just received a large stock of new goods, suited to the season, which they promise to sell at small profit, for cash, or to prompt monthly customers. They invite particular attention to their stock of ready-made clothing which is extensive and will be sold at city wholesale prices.

☞ Miss E. Z. Eckel, Fashionable Milliner and Dress Maker, announces to the ladies of Altoona and vicinity that she is prepared to attend to all their wants in her line, at her store on Virginia street, opposite the Lutheran Church. Dress trimmings constantly on hand. Plain sewing of all kinds done at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms.

☞ The hunters are now scouring the forests in all directions around us, in search of deer, bears, &c., some with good luck, others middling, and the greater number with no luck at all, but all who go in search of confectionaries, nuts, fruits, toys, or anything of the kind, for the holidays, will have the best of luck if they drop in at George Smith's establishment, on the corner of Main and Caroline streets, in Tuck's old stand.

SOME TURKEYS.—We heard a friend remark, a few evenings since, that he had in his coop, four turkeys whose united weight was 96 pounds. Won't those fellows make fine Christmas roasts? They'll laugh all over when the carver dissects them.

☞ Rev. Henry Baker, formerly pastor of the Lutheran congregation in this place, now of Lewistown, has received a call from the congregation of the Third Lutheran Church of Baltimore.

TOWN HALL.—The great want of our town must be observable to all. The buildings lately erected, and those in course of construction, are of a permanent and substantial character and displays architectural taste. But we are in want of a public improvement, and one which we must have ere long, and the sooner we have it the beter for us. We refer to a public Lyceum Building, or town Hall, where political meetings could be held, literary societies convene and public lectures be given—an appropriate place for a variety of social and intellectual amusements and recreations, always incident to a place of five thousand population. That we have no such place at present, is too true. Our churches are large, commodious and comfortable, and the various congregations worshipping in them have been unusually courteous and accommodating, in allowing miscellaneous meeting to be held in them from time to time. Nevertheless, churches are not appropriate places for mixed assemblages, and it is wrong to ask for them for that purpose. There are few if any towns in the country with a population of five thousand that have not a building of this kind. By reason of this want we lose the visits of all really meritorious troupos of vocalists and other entertainments and receive only those of a second or third grade who do not care what kind of a building they have to perform in so they get the money. We again refer to this matter hoping that some of our capitalists will give it at least a consideration. Similar enterprises have proved a complete success in other places? Why not here?

GOOD INK.—We are now writing with Laughlins and Bushfield's Chemical Writing Fluid, a new candidate for public favor, and must say that we are entirely pleased with it. It flows from the pen beautifully, and the color is, at first, a greenish blue, afterwards changing to a deep black. In our opinion it possesses all the merits of Arnold's Fluid, and makes the best record ink. It can be had at Fettinger's Literary Emporium, in bottles from ten cents up to seventy-five cents. Fet has also on hand a supply of copying ink, to which he invites the attention of those who use the article.

P. S. Fet has gone, is going, or will soon go to the city for his stock of Holiday notions—Look out for his return, as he will have something to astound the country.

REMOVAL.—Our jovial little friend, Charley Shannon, has removed his jewelry store to the old Post Office building, on Virginia street, second door above the Lutheran Church, where he has just received a large invoice of clocks, watches and jewelry, expressly for the holidays. Be sure and give him a call.

☞ We understand that our old friend R. B. Taylor, and his brother, had the good luck to bring home seven deer, on Saturday last, the proceeds of a ten days hunt.

☞ The Tyrone Star says that the Tyrone and Lock Haven Rail Road was sold recently for $5,900. The name of the purchaser is not given.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ Connecticut having a foreign demand for her clocks, ticks on, in spite of the times. The New Haven clock manufacturers, it is stated, are sending abroad some 17,000 or 18,000 per month.

☞ Curious.—A strange story is told of a boy at Newport, Ohio, sixteen years of age, whose body is covered with scales like those of a salmon, which he sheds twice a year, new ones taking their places.

☞ A number of young men in Mifflin and Patterson are about organizing themselves into a theatrical company for the purpose of entertaining the citizens of those places during the coming winter.

☞ Fatal Accident.—John Simpson, an employee of the Broad Top Railroad, was killed Wednesday morning, at Saxton, by accidently falling between the cars. He was a sober, industrious man—lived at M'Connellstown—and leaves a wife and four children.

☞ Our neighbor of the Standard says that he is decidedly in favor of the Ledger's way of bringing quiet to the country, i. e., Mr. Lincoln not to remove any of the present office holders. Our neighbor carries the mail from the P. O. to the depot in Hollidaysburg, at a salary of $365 a year.

☞ The Standard says that Maj. Raymond, of the Whig, is an applicant for the Post Office, in Hollidaysburg. Judge Jones of the Register, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the same appointment, denies that it is by authority, as he has no aspirations that way.

☞ The year 1861 will be the first of the 660th Olympiad. There will be an annular eclipse of the sun on the 14th of January, another on the 7th of July, and a total eclipse on the 13th of December. There will also be a partial eclipse of the moon on the 17th of December.

☞ A physician in Cincinnati, Ohio, had, for some time past been much annoyed by depredators, who drank up the milk left at his doorstep at an early hour. One day last week he left an emetic in the pitcher, and soon after the milkman had passed, the doctor found a policeman in a neighboring alley "making his returns."

☞ Married—On the 13th ult., by the Rev. S. L. M. Consor, Samuel G. Whittaker, editor of the Huntingdon American, to Miss Hattie Hagey. On the ground that a poor devil of an editor has as good a right to starve some man's daughter as any person else, we say Sammy did right in taking to himself a bed-fellow for the cold weather now upon us. We wish him luck.

☞ Cure for Burns.—The Gazette Medicol of France says that, by an accident, charcoal has been discovered to be a cure for burns. By laying a piece of cold charcoal upon a burn, the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour, the wound is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. The remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

☞ Non Intercourse.—The steamship Alabama, which arrived at New York from Savannah, Georgia, brought back 34 steerage passengers, who, it is said, were not permitted to land; the same course being pursued in that city as in Charleston—all steerage passengers being returned. If these reports are correct, the number of passengers sent back from Charleston is 126, and from Savannah 92.

☞ In the Patent Office at Washington, there is the model of a steamer furnished with air chambers for the purpose of rendering the vessel so buoyant that it may pass over bars or through shallow water without discharging its cargo. The point of special interest with reference to this contrivance is that it is the invention of Hon. Abraham Lincoln, President elect. He received a patent for it on the 22d of May, 1849.

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculation, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The Chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payments on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, the real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the clerk, the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

☞ Mailed (post paid) to any part of the United States, upon receipt of the money. Price of a single copy, in cloth, 60 cents, or two copies for $1,00. Bound in pocket-book form, morocco, $1,00 per copy.

DR. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affictions of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old orders, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nor overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic preventative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGE.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Misus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no. a bottle of Prepared Pills.—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits: it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician,—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes. I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills. I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous cases of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox. The Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness. For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a derangement of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with pefect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 13, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Markefield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rums, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

PROF. L. MILLER'S

HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND.

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning grey.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

MEDICATED FUR CHEST PROTECTOR, A SAFE SHIELD AGAINST THOSE fearful diseases Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion and the continual changes of our Climate, for sale at the Drug Store of G. W. KESSLER.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by feeding and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter in which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, SALT RHEUM, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines was cured of Piles of 35 years standing by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and all BILLIOUS COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description—Scrofula and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild but powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Nervous Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach nearone million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.
